

REFERENCE FOR APPLICATION TO MORE HOUSE STUDENT HALL OF RESIDENCE

To the Referee

Please be kind enough to answer the following questions:

Name of applicant: GASPARD OLIVIERS

How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?
About 8 years and as Captain of the Royal Golf Club of Belgium

Is the applicant a practising member of a Christian Church or any other religious group?
I don't know Gaspard so well for this part of his life. All I can say is that he has been studying in a Catholic School (Sint Jan Berchmans College) which is run by Jesuits and best known for its quality of teaching and discipline.

What are the applicant's main strengths and weaknesses?
Gaspard is of a quite character, very polite, well behaved, well ordered, organised and socially turned to the others.
Weakness? I have to look far away! I would say that, in sport, he is not a killer but, to be truthful, this turns out to rather be a quality when you have to share some accommodation with him.

What benefits do you think the applicant will gain from living in a Catholic hall of residence? What do you believe (s)he will have to offer?
He will find a residence occupied by youngsters sharing the same values as in his family and I am sure he will offer a good example of living in society as well as being helpful to anybody who needs some support at any moment.

If you wish to make any other comments please do so. (Continue overleaf)
Gaspard is issued from a family of great traditions.
His father is consultant in engineering, his mother is judge (President of a Court of Appeal) so needless to say respect of traditions and respect of rules are engraved in the family DNA. This is something you find back in Gaspard's character. As a golf player, and he is a very good one, he is very respectful of the Etiquette which is also adamant in our Club. Golf is a lesson of life because in the space of 3 hours, you are faced with misfortune, frustrations, luck (on your opponent's side) and you still have to feel empathy for your partner or opponent and come out of the game as a nice person. Gaspard succeeds to this exercise each time he plays and I don't know anybody at our Club who doesn't appreciate him for his friendliness and candour.

Thank you for your help.

I confirm herewith my very strong recommendations for this young guy and I sincerely hope you will find a possibility for him to join your hall of residence !
